

CSS PROFILE

What is it?

The CSS Profile form is an additional requirement for many private schools when applying for financial aid. This is administered by the College Board and many colleges and universities use this to determine aid eligibility for non-government financial aid.

 Check to see if your school is listed.

Why should You Complete:

- May provide access to funding sources that may not be available through FAFSA.
- Provides a more thorough overview of your family finances than FAFSA.
- Gives you the opportunity to explain special circumstances regarding family financial matters.

Cost to File:

- The initial fee is $25.
- All additional reports are $16 per school.
- Fee waivers are available for an eligible student.

How to File:

- Starting October 1st each year, you can complete your online submission at cssprofile.org.
- Check the school's website for the required deadline.
